Acknowledgments

[This is just an example write it as you like. thank what you want in any order]

All praise and thanks to ALLAH, who provided me with the ability to complete this work. I hope to accept this work from me.

I am grateful of my parents and my family who are always providing help and support throughout the whole years of study. I hope I can give that back to them.

I also offer my sincerest gratitude to my supervisors, Prof. Dr., Dr. and T.A. who have supported me throughout my thesis with their patience, knowledge and experience.

Finally, I would like to thank my friends and all people who gave me support and encouragement.

Abstract

[The abstract should present an outline of the project and providing the reader with a brief idea about the project.

It includes the following:

- The problem with basic information about the project.
- Methods used in solving the problem.
- Main results, focusing on newly observed facts.
- Conclusions and argument discussed.

Abstract has to be written last to reflect precisely the content of the thesis, typed as one paragraph and not to exceed 250-300 words. In addition to the English abstract, Arabic abstract must be included.]
